

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

The Power of Design 7

CHAPTER

1 Here Today, Gone Tomorrow? 17

Our damaged planet • The historical view • The acceleration of disaster
• Healing on a human scale • Is time on our side?

CHAPTER

2 Designing for a Safer Future 29

Production and pollution • Product assessment • Packaging and shrouding
• The problem with plastics • Millions of tyres • Green Design • Profit and politics • Design in the 21st century

CHAPTER

3 Toward the Spiritual in Design 49

The function of beauty • The designer's intent • Design for Disassembly
• Exploiting every scrap • People participation • Designer as entrepreneur
• Evaluating new technologies • Design ethics • Transforming the assignment

CHAPTER

4 Sensing a Dwelling 75

Mood and environment • The dimension of light • Footfalls • Feeling the fabric • The sense of smell • Responses to space • Sounds and rhythms
• Organic geometry • The collective unconscious • Benign architecture

CHAPTER

5 The Biotechnology of Communities 105

Finding the centre once more • People not traffic • The aesthetics of site
• The sense of location • Nature's magic numbers • Ideal community size

CHAPTER

6 The Lessons of Vernacular Architecture 113

Too humble for history • Six fallacies about vernacular architecture
• Process not Product • Six explanations • The dynamic web

CHAPTER

7

Form Follows Fun 139

Designing for the moment • The fun object • Fashions in form
• 'Anti-design' • Toy or tool • The meaning of objects

CHAPTER

8

Is Convenience the Enemy? 159

Longing and dissatisfaction • Ten 'convenience' traps
• Design as signifier • Chair as design gesture • Fashion and cuteness

CHAPTER

9

Sharing not Buying 183

The consumer triangle • The quality of life • Ten questions before buying
• Three further questions • Possible answers

CHAPTER

10

Generations to Come 203

Drawing from different disciplines • The search for good form
• Design education for all • World information network • The quality of learning • Creative problem-solving

CHAPTER

11

The Best Designers in the World? 223

The edge of survival • Inuit design skills • Space concepts • Thinking in three dimensions • Art is life • Learning from the Inuit

CHAPTER

12

The New Aesthetic: Making the Future Work 235

Notes 247

Select Bibliography 251

Sources of Illustrations 254

Index 255